cial Seann O'Connor. Taylor said that he hoped to see a preliminary design at the May board meeting.

When combining this estimate with safety and security costs and maintenance at other locations, additional resources for STEM and STEAM, and the construction of a central preschool facility, a total of $45.09 million would be requested for a bond.

Pfaff expressed concern at the amount requested, as did Taylor and Upchurch. They wished to see more specific information and were concerned that the process is proceeding more slowly than anticipated.

Brofft said that this estimate would be used for polling purposes to get the public's opinion on what is acceptable and what priorities should be determined.

Taylor said that he was concerned that this pro-
