

parable town administrators were paid and that the town could not afford her salary. These claims prompted research into what other administrators are paid.

At the same meeting, Cressman announced that Widner & Juran LLP, the legal firm where Town Attorney Juran was a principal, had terminated its work for the town. Cressman did not provide details about the decision but did mention the board had received a letter from concerned residents who disagreed with Juran's conclusions about the role of the town administrator.

The resignations of Remington and Juran came at a time when the town was also discussing how to hire a town clerk.

Radosevich appointed to town manager role

At the Dec. 18 meeting, Trustee Mark Schuler said Bob Radosevich had offered to help the town part-time with budgeting and other administrative work.

Radosevich has previously served as the town's deputy town clerk.

The council accepted Radosevich's offer to serve as interim town administrator but did not decide on compensation.

Two resolutions passed

At the Dec. 12 meeting, the council passed Resolution 15 of 2019, which authorizes the town to accept $30,000 in common stock of United Technologies Corp., to be used by the town's Police Department, as directed by the police chief.

The stock was donated by an anonymous benefactor.

At the same meeting, following the conclusion of the public hearing on the budget held open from the November meeting, the council passed Resolution 16 of 2019, which adopts the 2020 budget, appropriates the monies specified, and certifies the mill levies for 2020. The total assessed valuation of property in Palmer Lake for 2019 is $38.358 million, according to the El Paso County assessor. The General Fund mill levy will be 11.238 mills, raising $431,070 in revenue; the Fire Department mills are 10.00, raising $383,582 in revenue. The total mill levy will be 21.238, unchanged from the previous year. During the discussion pre-
