

ive Real Estate Group Inc., representing the applicant, said, "What I continue to hear from the neighbors is fear, right, it's fear of preserving this way of life that they've had the benefit of having for decades and we understand that. A lot of what you heard today will be addressed in preliminary plan and our goal is to work with these neighborhood associations to make sure that this is done right, that this is responsible growth, that we're doing this the right way, and that it will comply with all of the requirements from the county and in a way that the
