both districts' personnel and the unification.

Kovacs also held a moment of silence for the recent passing of American Medical Response Paramedic

Douglas McIntyre, who worked for the Wescott ambulance service.

Holly Williams, El Paso County commissioner for District 1, said the following:

- This step toward unification is so important because we have so many fire districts and to see two of them combine territories is amazing, and the commissioners have been watching closely.
 - There is a lot of emphasis in the region on Wildland Fire Mitigation, and state grants will be available.
- "Thank you for putting your lives on the line and for your willingness to combine," said Williams.

Interim Fire Chief Warren Jones said, "After over 40 years in the fire service, this is by far the most gratifying moment." He added:

- Both districts have wonderful men and women that go out every day responding to calls to help the citizens of both communities.
- The benefits of this merger are going to be astounding and long lasting to the citizens and all of Northern El Paso County.
- There have been a "lot of folks" trying to make this happen for a long
