

TLWC gets CPR training, Feb. 7

Above: The Tri-Lakes Women's Club's (TLWC) Pine Forest Spring Show has been canceled for the second straight year because of COVID-19 concerns. But the TLWC has announced that its Holiday Home Tour will be held this winter. Meanwhile, members of the TLWC hiking group got CPR training from the Tri-Lakes Monument Fire Department on Feb. 7. TLWC member Carol Costakis, kneeling in left front, organized the training to honor her son's fiancée, who went into cardiac arrest two years ago on New Year's Eve. She was saved by CPR and an automated external defibrillator that shocked her heart back into rhythm. Costakis says knowledge of CPR could save someone in their group if they had a problem while hiking in a remote area. Photo by Stephanie Soll.

John Schneider at TLCA, Feb. 12

Right: On Feb. 12, the Tri-Lakes Center for the Arts (TLCA) welcomed actor and country music singer John Schneider. Schneider is well-known for his acting in Dukes of Hazzard, Smallville, and in the movies. It was through the Dukes of Hazzard and the show's celebrity speed trap, where country music singers were required to sing in exchange for citation forgiveness, that Schneider met and received inspiration from country music greats. Schneider played a number of his hits including Cowboys Don't Get Old and I've Been Around Long Enough to Know. He also paid tribute to Dottie West with A Lesson in Leavin' and close friend Waylon Jennings, performing I've Always Been Crazy. Opening for Schneider and acting as his backup band was the Richie Law Band. Law, who made it into the top 42 on American Idol in 2012 and originally from Parker, brought his Colorado-inspired, high energy country sound to the stage. Photo by David Futey.

Palmer Lake Winterfest, Feb. 12

Above: No skates. No sticks. Just brooms. Palmer Lake's Broomball Tournament highlighted the town's annual Winterfest on Feb. 12. Two rinks were cleared on the frozen lake. One was called Rinky Dink, the other Rinky Doo. Broomball is like hockey except players use brooms instead of sticks and wear shoes instead of skates. The Palmer Lake Parks Commission says the Rag Tags won the youth division while Icy Hot came in first in the family division and Vicious Ice Fishes took the adult division. The commission raised $650 to improve the town's parks and lake. Photo by Michael Weinfeld.
