MONUMENT (Cont. from 1)

Kimple and Sana Abbott were elected in November. Two seats were left vacant from LaKind's previous seat and the resignation of Redmond Ramos in December.

The Town Council interviewed five applicants for the two positions. Referencing the independent investigation of town management over the Home Rule Charter, Mayor LaKind asked the same question of all five candidates, "Do you believe the Home Rule Charter violates any part of the U.S. Constitution?" All candidates answered "no."

Other councilmembers asked questions on how they would handle situations that would come up to the board. Tom Penewell expressed concern with recent yelling and shouting at town meetings but admitted surprise at how little there was this night. Jason Gross expressed the need to get zoning and water right. Roman Peek expressed the desire to keep a small town feel in Monument. Marco Fiorito, who ran for this seat and lost in the November election, and Laura Kronick referenced their previous work with the town.

At the end of the Feb. 6 meeting, Fiorito and Kronick received the most votes from the councilmembers and were appointed to the two positions on the board. They were sworn in on Feb. 21. All seven councilmember positions are now complete:

- Mitch LaKind, mayor (elected 2022, serving Term 1)
- Jim Romanello, councilmember (elected 2020, serving Term 1)
- Steve King, mayor Pro Tem (elected 2022, serving Term 1)
- Sana Abbott, councilmember (elected 2022, serving Term 1)
