PALMER LAKE (from p1)

chael Maddox reported:

- Douglas County Open Space declined the town's application to use an area as a balloon landing zone due to the possible size of the balloon fair and congestion it could cause.
- He hosted a summit to discuss Estemere becoming an international art outreach center. Another summit is planned for April and he is seeking individuals to put together a board for the center.

- He met with Little Log Church Pastor Bill Story about having concerts at the Tri-Lakes Center for the Arts (TLCA) on Sunday evenings.

- An Art Walk will occur each second Friday of the month from May through October. Locations will include the TLCA and art galleries in Monument.

Chief Moreland said there were 16 minor violations during the month. He said a mountain lion in the Glen killed a pet and, as a result, the Colorado Division of Wildlife is monitoring the situation. A deer was also killed, possibly by the same lion. Moreland said mountain lions have a 40-square-mile territory. He also reported that two new part-time officers were hired.

Water Trustee Stafford said neither well was used in the past month because of low water use. Four-tenths of an acre-foot per day is being used daily on average. The water plant is now fully online and has been operational for a month. The plant's electric bill was $2,800, or about half the cost of the electric-
