

Main parade

Quillan Edwards,
El Paso County Fair queen

Palmer Ridge High School cheerleaders—Colorado High School 4A Cheer state champions

El Paso County Sheriff's Office-Wildland Fire received a cheer from spectators.

LP Elementary School-PTO float

Monument Academy Lynx cheerleaders

Wescott Fire Protection District

Pikes Peak Brewing

Lewis-Palmer High School Ranger Poms

Post-Parade

Above left: WireWood Station was one of the many bands to entertain parade-goers with music at Limbach Park after the parade. Photo by David Futey

Above right: Legacy Sertoma used the Rocky Mountain Sertoma Club's Hearing Van to offer free hearing screenings at the Tri-Lakes Chamber of Commerce

Street Fair on July 4 in Monument. They also gave away foam ear plugs to promote hearing health during noisy Independence Day events. From left are Jack Rinedollar and Bob Swickert, who are the HEARS van drivers and hearing screeners. See www.legacysertoma.org/ for information. Photo by Jim Fitzpatrick.